

Checklist

- Accept your offer of admission by the stated deadline. If you intend to live in student housing, follow the procedures in the admission letter or contact residence@wdw.utoronto.ca .
- Access the Faculty of Arts & Science Calendar and Registration Handbook & Timetable at <http://www.artsci.utoronto.ca/newstudents>. You can also come to the College to pick up copies of these publications.
- Attend Welcome Events or Academic Orientation Sessions at the College to learn about academic requirements and procedures.
- Familiarize yourself with the online student record system, ROSI, at <http://www.rosi.utoronto.ca>. Change your PIN and check your “START TIME” for course enrolment on the date indicated in the Handbook & Timetable.
- Enrol in courses on-line (using ROSI) during your enrolment window. For best course selection, you should enrol at your earliest opportunity.
- Get your UofT student card (known as a T-CARD) <http://www.utoronto.ca/tcard/> . Make sure you bring along photo ID and your offer of admission.
- Set up your UofT email account: <http://www.artsci.utoronto.ca/newstudents/canadian/nextsteps/utormail> . The University administration and professors will use this account as a primary means of communicating with you. You are responsible for checking this regularly.
- Work out your financial plan for the academic year and pay the minimum first installment of your tuition fees by the August 23rd deadline. Print your invoice off ROSI and pay at a bank. Failure to pay your tuition on time will result in removal from all of your courses.
- Check the College website periodically for information for new students: www.wdw.utoronto.ca and plan to attend the welcome and orientation activities prior to the beginning of classes.

Congratulations and Welcome to U of T!
